Scholarships

Each year, CCS partners with local, regional, and national organizations to provide full and partial summer workshop scholarships for students who could not otherwise attend.

This year, additional partial scholarships are available through CCS based on financial need, on a first-come first-serve basis. To be considered for a scholarship, please submit a copy of your 2010 federal income tax return along with your registration materials. You will be notified of your award, if any, within 3 days of receipt. Tuition balance payment must be made within 7 days of notice of scholarship

The Center for Cartoon Studies does not discriminate in its admissions policies for reasons of race, religion, or ethnic origin.

Housing

Student housing is available in the hostel section at the nearby Hotel Coolidge.

Rates:

$21/night for a shared room

$35/night for a single room

$45/night for a single half-bath room

$55/night for a double half-bath room (full bed)

To make a reservation, contact the Hotel Coolidge, (802) 295-3118. Let them know you plan on attending a summer workshop at CCS. Space is limited.

To Enroll in the For-Credit Option

Cartooning Studio can be taken for 2 undergraduate credits. Policies on transfer credit vary by institution and by program, so it is important to seek the approval of your college or university registrar before registering for the for-credit option. Students enrolled for-credit will be graded on a Pass/No Credit basis and will be issued an official transcript, a copy of which will be maintained on file in the CCS records office and furnished upon request. To enroll for-credit, students must have an official transcript sent to:
