Scholarships

Each year, CCS partners with local, regional, and national organizations to provide full and partial summer workshop scholarships for students who could not otherwise attend.

Additional partial scholarships are available through CCS based on financial need, on a first-come first-serve basis. To be considered for a scholarship, please submit a copy of your 2012 federal income tax return along with your registration materials. You will be notified of your award, if any, within 3 days of receipt. Tuition balance payment must be made within 7 days of notice of scholarship

Refund Policy

Tuition is refundable up until 3 weeks prior to the first day of the workshop minus a $50 fee. Tuition is non-refundable after that date. Space is limited.

The Center for Cartoon Studies does not discriminate in its admissions policies for reasons of race, religion, or ethnic origin.

Housing

Student housing is available in the hostel section at the nearby Hotel Coolidge.

Special rates are:

$40/night for a single hostel room

or shared hotel guest room

$69/night for a single hotel guest room

To make a reservation, contact the Hotel Coolidge, (802) 295-3118. Please let them know you plan on attending a summer workshop at The Center for Cartoon Studies. Book now, space is limited. Special rates are all subject to 9% VT tax and availability.

For a complete list of area hotels

with discounted rates for CCS, please visit cartoonstudies.org.

To Enroll in the For-Credit Option

Cartooning Studio and the Graphic Novel Workshop can be taken for 2 undergraduate credits. The Graphic Novel Workshop Online Extension can be taken for 1 undergraduate credit. Policies on transfer credit vary by institution and by program, so it is important to seek the approval of your college or university registrar before registering for the for-credit option. Students enrolled for-credit will be graded on a Pass/No Credit basis and will be issued an official transcript, a copy of which will be maintained on file in the CCS records office and furnished upon request. To enroll for-credit, students must have an official transcript sent to:
